Top Red Flags (caution points)

- Compatibility star overlays: Hongyeom-Yangin cross — classical caution pattern
- Day-branch interaction (spouse palaces): A Day Branch·B Earthly Branches Six Clash O Ja
- Nayin harmony: Yin Heavenly River Water vs Furnace Fire → clashing
[element-grammar-fallback]

Yellow Flags (observation points)

- Day-branch interaction (spouse palaces): A Day Branch·B Earthly Branches Six Harm O Chuk

Favorable Points (positive factors)

- Combined element balance: A Favorable Element — the element your chart most needs for balance — lean toward it Water combination sufficient
- Combined element balance: B Favorable Element Earth combination sufficient
- Day-branch interaction (spouse palaces): Day Branch Half Harmony In O Sul (Fire)

What 55/100 (Mixed) means: The composite is anchored so that a perfectly neutral chart (all sub-systems scoring 0) lands at 50/100 in the Mixed band; positive classical signals lift it, and negative signals lower it. a workable union in which specific sub-systems ask for deliberate attention. Mixed is not a failure — many long, happy marriages sit in this band; the chart simply flags which dimensions want conscious effort rather than riding on natural ease.

Who You Are Together (two of the people relationship character)

Together, your spouse palaces (Day Branch) sit in a partial harmony (Half Harmony), you share the Day Master — you — the reference point the whole chart is read against Bing — a peer/mirror dynamic (Pillar (Companion)) rather than a complement, your charts feed each other's favorable element (Favorable Element) — each brings what the other needs. This composite is a tendency, not a destiny — the daily relationship is shaped by the choices both of you make over years.

> In plain words: Overall this reads as a workable match with real friction points to manage deliberately (55/100). Treat the number as a weather report, not a verdict.

Day-Stem Combination — Day-Stem Combination (Heavenly-Stem Combination)

Score: +0 / 12 (Soft)

The two Day Masters (Bing and Bing) do not form a Heavenly-Stem Combination. Attraction through this layer is neutral; the relationship must lean on day-branch, element balance, and ten-god cross-relations.

Day-Branch Interaction (the heart of Compatibility) — Day Branch Combination / Clash / Punishment / Break / Harm

Score: +2 / 30 (Soft)

Day-branch interaction (Day Branch combination clash) is the heart of classical Compatibility. the two spouse palaces (O and In) have no direct combination/clash; the two spouse palaces are two-of-three in the In O Sul three-harmony frame (Fire) — partial harmony. Cross-chart branch interactions add a secondary layer (net -6, capped at ± 15).

Tags: Day Branch Half Harmony In O Sul (Fire), A Day Branch·B Earthly Branches Six Clash 0 Ja, A Day Branch·B Earthly Branches Six Harm 0 Chuk

> In plain words: At the centre of the match, your day-to-day rhythms are neutral — neither a lift nor a drag on their own.

Nayin Harmony — Nayin Five Elements (Nayin Five Elements)

Score: -5 / 5 (Yellow Flag)

The two day pillars carry the Nayin tones Heavenly River Water and Furnace Fire (clashing). In classical Seojeon-gumirok commentary this is a soft 'deep-tone' indicator — neither a red flag nor a primary factor, but it colors the relationship's underlying feel. The 30×30 pair-specific Seojeon-gumirok table is not yet sourced; this verdict uses the documented 5-element grammar as a fallback.

Favorable Element Cross-Supply — Favorable Element Compatibility (Favorable Element Compatibility)

Score: +12 / 12 (Strong)

Favorable Element cross-supply is the Gungtong-bogam (favorable-element method) deciding factor: does each partner's chart carry the element the other needs? Both partners bring meaningful supply of the other's favorable element. This is a structural complementarity — 'Favorable Element' reading.

Tags: B → A Favorable Element Water supply favorable (26%), A → B Favorable Element Earth supply favorable (27%)

Day-Pillar Pair Classification — Day Pillar Compatibility (Day Pillar Compatibility)

Score: +1 / 15 (Soft)

The two day pillars are Bing O (Partner A) and Bing In (Partner B). Each partner's spouse palace (day-branch Gi (Yin Earth) — the main hidden stem of a branch — its dominant inner force hidden stem) is read against their own favorable element (Jeokcheon-su (classical reference) principle).

Tags: Bing 0 Spouse Palace weak, Bing In Spouse Palace strong, Day Branch Gi (Yin Earth) Jeong → Rob Wealth (Companion) (Fire), Day Branch Gi (Yin Earth) Gap → Indirect Resource (Wood)

Combined Element Balance — combination Five Elements (Union Five Elements)

Score: +11 / 12 (Strong)

Combined element distribution (avg of both charts): Wood=12%, Fire=27%, Earth=25%, Metal=18%, Water=18%. The union has some imbalance — over-dominant elements 'rule' the relationship. Gungtong-bogam (favorable-element method) framing: one chart may be cold, the other hot — complementary climates balance the union.

Tags: A Favorable Element Water combination sufficient, B Favorable Element Earth combination sufficient

Ten-God Cross-Relationship — Ten Gods (Ten Gods Cross)

Score: +0 / 10 (Soft)

In Ten Gods cross-reading, each partner is classified as a specific Ten Gods of the other's Day Master. A→B/B→A Ten Gods pattern is Pillar (Companion)/Pillar (Companion) (Pillar/Pillar) — both Day Masters share the same stem (Bing). This is the mirror-companion dynamic: peer-energy, equals rather than complements. The classical table (§G) reads companion-spouse as relationship, Gyeong (Yang Metal) (an equal bond, sometimes competitive); the Kwon In-seong school reads same-polarity unions as familiar ease (familiar, easy) but at risk of going stale — a friendship-over-romance tendency where mutual competition surfaces when both reach for the same role. The classical offset is deliberate asymmetry: take turns leading and following so the bond does not flatten into a sibling dynamic. Base score is neutral (0); a Favorable Element-element match between partners can lift it.

Tags: A (Bing) B (Bing) Pillar (Companion) — a peer or equal — support, solidarity, and rivalry in equal measure, B (Bing) A (Bing) Pillar (Companion)

> Watch out for — Major Luck direction different (diverging major-luck directions): the two of you enter life's large phases on different timing tracks. Years that feel expansive for one can coincide with a contraction phase for the other. For any time-bound decision (wedding year, relocation, major purchase), overlay both partners' Annual Luck — the theme of a single year (annual luck) rather than reading either chart alone.

Major Luck Synchrony — Major Luck·Annual Luck Synchrony (Major Luck·Annual Luck Synchrony)

Score: +1 / 5 (Soft)

Daeun directions: A = backward, B = forward. Different directions mean major life-stage transitions often diverge in timing. Time-bound commentary for a specific year should use a separate Annual Luck overlay.

Tags: Major Luck — roughly ten-year life chapters that colour a whole span direction different (backward vs forward), starting Major Luck mutual generation (Fire↔Wood)

Compatibility Star Overlays — Star Compatibility (Star Compatibility)

Score: -5 / 5 (Yellow Flag)

Cross-star overlays are descriptive, not primary factors. Peach Blossom — charm and magnetism — attractiveness, and sometimes distraction or scandal cross patterns suggest magnetic attraction but caution against exclusivity issues; Post Horse — movement — travel, relocation, changing scenes, a mobile life dual-presence suggests parallel but peripatetic lives; Canopy — solitude and depth — art, scholarship, spirituality, time alone dual suggests a tendency to grow apart emotionally. Heavenly Noble in the partner's day branch is the most favorable cross-star pattern. Net yellow-flag cross-star signature.

Tags: Hongyeom-Yangin cross – classical caution pattern

Yin-Yang Polarity — Yin-Yang Harmony (Yin-Yang Harmony)

Score: -1 / 3 (Yellow Flag)

Day Masters: A=Yang, B=Yang. Same polarity — similar wavelength, can drift into complacency. Union polarity balance: 50% Yang.

Tags: Day Master Yin-Yang same (Yang/Yang), combination Yin-Yang punishment favorable (50% Nurturing)

Year-Branch Zodiac Pair (Zodiac) — Zodiac Compatibility (Branch Compatibility)

Score: +0 / 3 (Soft)

Year-branch pair (Mi/Yu) — the zodiac-sign layer of Compatibility. It is the lightest signal in the reading: a useful intuitive opener, never a verdict. Modern Korean Myeongri (Korean Saju tradition) weights it at most 3 of 100; popular fortune sites tend to over-emphasise it.

All timing notes are tendencies, not date-specific predictions. Use them as a lens for joint planning rather than as fixed forecasts.

> In plain words: On timing, your life-chapters turn on loosely related clocks — mostly fine, with occasional mismatched timing.

Practical Guidance (practical guidance)

- Lean on your shared lucky element. Cross-Favorable Element supply is strong (sub-system D: 12/12) — each of you brings what the other's chart needs. Consciously build environments, seasons, and activities that activate the favorable element (Water / Earth); both Day Masters benefit at once.
- Day-stem combination (Day-Stem Combination) is absent. Attraction must build through shared activities, not first-meeting chemistry — the day-branch layer (below) is your primary anchor.
- You share the same Day Master (Bing) — a Pillar (Companion) (Pillar) mirror dynamic. You are peers rather than complements: easy and familiar, but it can drift toward a sibling/friendship tone or mild competition when both want the same role. Counter it with deliberate asymmetry — take turns leading and following, and protect romantic differentiation so the bond doesn't flatten.
- Day-branch clash (Day Branch Six Clash) is present — a classical hard indicator. Workable, but the relationship benefits from explicit communication rhythms: a weekly 'check-in' beats ad-hoc resolution.
- Nayin (Yin) clash is present — a soft, disputed indicator. Don't overweight it on its own; treat it as a reminder to align emotional climate (climate: cold/hot, dry/wet) rather than as a blocking verdict.
- Identical Yin-Yang polarity (same wavelength). Easy resonance, but the Kwon In-seong school warns it can go familiar ease-stale — protect differentiation and avoid drifting into parallel rather than intertwined lives.
- Your major-luck (Major Luck) directions diverge — life's large phases arrive on different timing tracks for the two of you. Be more deliberate about timing joint decisions: for any wedding year, relocation, or major purchase, overlay both partners' Annual Luck (annual luck) and pick a window that is favorable for both, not just one.

Closing Note (Closing Note)

This reading reflects the classical Kwon In-seong·Kwak Im-seong·Jeong Bong-jae·Song Gi-yeong Korean Myeongri consensus on Pawan × Sruthi's natal compatibility, across all eleven sub-systems documented in. The composite score of 55/100 (Mixed) is a tendency indicator, not a destiny. No compatibility reading can account for conscious effort, life circumstances, or the choices both partners make over years. Classical Myeongri (Korean Saju tradition) text guides tendencies; the relationship itself is lived.

A note on challenging and mixed verdicts: these do not mean incompatibility. They mean the chart surfaces patterns that need deliberate, conscious attention — which is a different problem from having no resonance at all. Many long, happy marriages have charts with 'Challenging' compat scores; many short, painful ones have 'Excellent'.
