Lifetime Timeline

Every five-year block, colour-coded by net favorable lean (favorable years minus unfavorable years): green where the favorable element leads by 2+ years, red where the unfavorable leads by 2+, amber otherwise. A block showing fewer favorable years can still read green if it has no unfavorable years — the net, not the raw count, sets the colour.

The Five-Year Blocks

1. 2001–2005 (Ages 8–12) — Bing Shin (丙申)

The decade backdrop is Bing Shin (丙申) (Companion (比肩), compare rob (比劫)), with the opening five years led by officer star (官星) · Resource (印星) annual energy. In 2001–2005, 3 years of 5 carry your favorable element (Water / Metal) — an overall favorable phase. The spouse palace (day branch 午) is activated in 2002 self-punishment, 2003 binding — relationship, home, or partnership themes are more likely to surface.

2001	Sin Sa (辛巳)	Direct Wealth	wealth star (財星)	—
2002	Im O (壬午)	Seven Killings	officer star (官星)	—

- Business: 2 of 5 years in 2001–2005 are Authority — an institution, rank or licensed role comes to the fore. Since Authority (관성) is your unfavorable element, read 2001–2005 as added structure and pressure rather than a natural fit; use it to build standing, not to over-commit.
- Family: The spouse palace is both bound and unsettled (2002 self-punishment, 2003 binding) — a phase where a bond can deepen or formalise, but with friction or change around it; read it as a window, not a guarantee.
- Investment pattern: A favorable-element phase (3/5) — the chart is in better balance, which supports planning and negotiation.

- Family: The spouse palace is struck or unsettled (2008 clash, 2009 harm) — better for deepening privately than for formalising commitments this phase.
- Investment pattern: A mixed phase — keep positions simple and liquidity available; a natal storehouse is clashed/punished in 2006 punishment, 2009 clash, 2009 punishment, the classical wealth storehouse (재고) 'storehouse opens' timing — the classics do not settle release vs. scatter, so treat it as a watch, not a signal; the Companion (비겁) presence in 2006–2010 argues for sole holdings or partnerships with hard boundaries.
