Lifetime Timeline

Every five-year block, colour-coded by net favorable lean (favorable years minus unfavorable years): green where the favorable element leads by 2+ years, red where the unfavorable leads by 2+, amber otherwise. A block showing fewer favorable years can still read green if it has no unfavorable years — the net, not the raw count, sets the colour.

In 2003–2007, 1 year of 5 carries your favorable element (Earth / Fire) — an overall mixed phase. The spouse palace (day branch 寅) is activated in 2004 clash, 2004 punishment, 2007 binding, 2007 break — relationship, home, or partnership themes are more likely to surface.

- Family: The spouse palace is both bound and unsettled (2004 clash, 2004 punishment, 2007 binding, 2007 break) — a phase where a bond can deepen or formalise, but with friction or change around it; read it as a window, not a guarantee.
- Investment pattern: A mixed phase — keep positions simple and liquidity available; a natal storehouse is clashed/punished in 2003 clash, 2003 punishment, 2006 punishment, the classical wealth storehouse (재고) 'storehouse opens' timing — the classics do not settle release vs. scatter, so treat it as a watch, not a signal; the Companion (비겁) presence in 2003–2007 argues for sole holdings or partnerships with hard boundaries.
